

Don't miss out!
Our new video echoes from coast to coast to coast.

From The Jaw to Toontown, it's all about Saskatchewan this month
...because connection of The Great Trail, province-wide, has been achieved!

Saskatchewan is now Canada's fourth province or territory to reach this milestone, after Newfoundland & Labrador, Prince Edward Island and Yukon.

Saskatchewan's Connection Milestone will be celebrated on Saturday, October 1, 2016 in Wakamow Valley, Moose Jaw. Check out our website for more information on this event.

In this issue of Trail Talk we set the GPS for The Great Trail in Saskatchewan, to share stories about some of the individuals who have helped to build and care for it, who have experienced it for themselves...and much more!

5 Must-See Saskatchewan Trail Sections

National Historic Sites, rolling hills and sparkling waters are just some of the surroundings in which you may find yourself along The Great Trail in Saskatchewan. Check out our five must-see sections of the Trail in the province.

Read more »

Creating Trail Tourism in Rural Saskatchewan

If you live in rural Saskatchewan, there's a good chance a section of The Great Trail is right nearby. TCT has been working with rural municipalities to help showcase their beauty.

Read more »

Saskatchewan's section of The Great Trail is now fully connected, province-wide!

Celebrate Saskatchewan's Connection Milestone with Trans Canada Trail (TCT) on October 1, 2016 in Moose Jaw, and special guests including TCT President & CEO and Deborah Apps, and TCT Foundation Co-Chair Valerie Pringle.

The Great Trail Finds a Great Home in North Qu'Appelle

North Qu'Appelle is nestled between four lakes, home to four First Nations, 2,000 residents, and a growing stretch of The Great Trail.

Read more »

Prairie Hospitality on the Trail

In five short days, a group of cyclists enjoyed some of the best of what Saskatchewan has to offer via The Great Trail, including the warmth and generosity of the people of Saskatchewan.

Read more »

Great Canadian Donors: Shirley and Greg

Shirley Humphries and her husband, Greg Lawrence, live in Regina and have been TCT donors since 1995. Find out why.

Read more »

DONATE TODAY!

Facebook

Instagram

Twitter

Trans Canada Trail | 300-321 de la Commune Ouest | Montreal | QC | H2Y 2E1 | Canada