

GREENWAYS: VISION AND CORE PRINCIPLES

The Great Trail of Canada is the world's longest network of recreational multi-use trails, encompassing hundreds of local Trail sections from coast to coast to coast.

OUR VISION

- Protect and increase the number of designated greenway sections on The Great Trail, and offer unique opportunities to get outdoors, explore major cities and small towns, experience our ever-changing landscapes, and discover Canada's rich history and diverse cultures and communities
- Strive to ensure that The Great Trail offers one of the best fitness and active living destinations for Canadians and international visitors, allowing them the opportunity to participate in healthy and lowcost recreation activities
- Maintain connection of the hundreds of local Trail sections that form the world's longest network of recreational multi-use trails, in order to offer a variety of Trail experiences in all seasons

CORE PRINCIPLES

Trans Canada Trail is committed to:

- Protecting and increasing the number of designated greenway sections with the support and consent of local Trail communities
- Planning and developing, where feasible, the conversion of road sections and mixed-use trail into greenway
- Making routing decisions based on what is best for non-motorized users, while maintaining connection
- Providing a safe and enjoyable experience on the highest quality Trail possible
- Promoting an active and healthy lifestyle and encouraging active transportation
